

SECTION 6.0

AGENCIES AND PERSONS CONSULTED

The following agencies and persons were consulted during the preparation of the EIR:

California Department of Fish and Game

Annee Ferranti
Rebecca Jones

California Department of Health Services

Jesse Dhaliwal

California Regional Water Quality Control Board, Lahontan Region

Brianna Bergen

City of Ridgecrest

Dennis Speers

Eastern Kern County Resource Conservation District

Leroy Marquardt
Donna Thomas

Indian Wells Valley Airport District

Scott Seymour

Inyokern Community Services District

Brian Bebee

Kern County Board of Supervisors

Jon McQuiston

Kern County Grand Jury, County Services and Special Districts

Richard Frank

Kern County Planning Department

Lorelei Oviatt

Kern County Water Agency

Michelle Casterline
Tom Haslebacher

Native American Groups

Kern Valley Indian Council – Robert Robinson
Kitanemuk and Yowlumne Tejon Indians – Delia Dominguez
Kiwaiisu Tribe of Tejon Reservation – David Laughinghorse Robinson
San Fernando Band of Mission Indians – John Valenzuela
Tehachapi Indian Tribe – Charlie Cooke

WATER SUPPLY IMPROVEMENT PROJECT DRAFT ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT REPORT

Native American Groups (continued)

Tejon Indian Tribe – Katherine Montes-Morgan

Tubatulabals of Kern Valley – Donna Begay

Tubatulabal, Kawaiisu, Koso, and Yokuts – Ron Wermuth

Tule River Indian Tribe – Ryan Garfield

Native American Heritage Commission

Dave Singleton

Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County

Dr. Samuel McLeod

Naval Air Weapons Station, China Lake

Captain Jeffrey Dodson

Mike Stoner

San Bernardino County Museum

Eric Scott

Southern San Joaquin Valley Information Center, CSU Bakersfield

U.S. Bureau of Land Management

Glenn Harris

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

Ray Bransfield